1. The Office of Training considers the [REDACTED] mentioned in the reference to be sound doctrinally. The manual makes no reference to the U.S. Government, although "allied forces" are frequently referred to. It is suggested that sterilization also be applied to the word "allied" and to the activities of any allied [REDACTED]

2. This Office doubts that a sound [REDACTED] capability can be established solely by means of briefings from this manual. The manual should not be considered to be an adequate substitute for a professional course on this subject. It is therefore suggested that consideration be given to organizing a special course adapted to conditions [REDACTED] personnel. Representatives from the Office of Training are available for consultation on this matter.
